

What Do You Know?

Are you staying vigilant to protect yourself and loved ones from financial exploitation?

Financial exploitation has been called “the crime of the 21st century” with one study suggesting that Americans lost at least $2.9 billion to financial exploitation.

Awareness is the first step. Reporting and early interventions are vital.

- Investment Fraud
- Telephone and Internet Scams
- Phantom Debt Collection Scams
- Avoid Charity Scams
- Computer/Internet Scams
- Identity Theft
- Medical Identity Theft
- Planning for Unexpected Life Events
- Scams that Target Homeowners
- Scams that Target Veterans

Kitsap Asset Building Coalition is here to provide information and resources.
Would you like free printed material? Do you have questions?

Contact (360) 473-2126 or ablackwell@kcr.org.